

HALLS OF CONGRESS.

The Tariff Bill Debated and Dissected.

CAUSE OF DEMOCRATIC DEFEAT

The Senators' Opinions on the Late Election—Doings in the House—Etc., Etc.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—But little morning business was transacted, so the tariff bill was quickly taken up, the question being the amendment offered by Jones, of Arkansas, to admit hoop or band iron (cotton ties etc.) free of duty, instead of taxing it 2-10 cent per pound additional. The question whether or not this would be a tax on the cotton planter, and if so, how much, was discussed at length by Berry and Hiscock.

Hiscock replied to Berry at some length in a speech championing the Senate bill and protective tariff. In closing, he said imperative action on this question had been demanded by the people. The Democrats will have a chance four years from now to try it over again. This is

NOT THE TIME NOR THE PLACE, so soon after this full discussion, so soon after a rebuke of that sort of declamation, to indulge in it again, and I maintain it will have no effect on this side of the chamber and none on the country. We don't believe the tariff is a robbery. We believe in building up American industries. We have raw material here to make these cotton ties, and we believe the industry can be so successfully established that the effect will be to force down the price of cotton ties. A colloquy in reference to cotton and to the question as to whether its price was fixed in the Liverpool market took place between Senators Reagan, Hiscock and Chace.

WHY THEY WERE DEFEATED!

After it closed, the cause of the Democrats' defeat in the last election brought up Reagan, claiming the tariff had not so much to do with it as had the veto of the dependent pension bills and the Democratic discontent with the civil service policy.

Chace asked whether the discontent was because the President had not carried out his pledges.

REAGAN—The discontent was because he did not carry out his pledges and because he kept Republicans in office in cases where the law did not require him to do so.

DAWES—Does the Senator mean to say the President's party deserved him because he would not break his pledges?

REAGAN—No, sir; I do not mean that.

DAWES—What do you mean?

REAGAN—It was the President's duty to carry out the law, but not his duty to carry the principle of law to the offices that were not covered by it. I mean, that there was discontent with the doctrine of and the gentlemen on the other side will soon have the evidence of that discontent.

Hiscock asserted there was no evidence of Democratic discontent in the State of New York with the President's civil service policy during the last year. Then replying to Reagan's remarks about the agricultural interests on the tariff question, he reminded him of the fact that the Republicans of the State of New York came down to Harlem River with 85,000 majority, and that that part of the State was fairly agricultural. That Iowa, a fairly agricultural State, gave the Republicans a majority of 30,000, and that Kansas gave the Republicans a majority of 75,000 or 80,000. That proved, he said, that the agricultural interests of the country did not consider it was BEING INJURED BY THE TARIFF.

Reagan accounted for it by suggesting that for the last twenty years the fallacies about the lessening of tariffs had been preached to the farmers, and that the last campaign was too short to undo the fact of such preaching.

Hale stated that the President's tariff message had been more extensively circulated among the farmers of the north and northwest than any other document for years, the circulation being millions on millions of copies, which the farmers had read and which they answered in the election.

AFTER RECESS.

The presiding officer, at 2 o'clock, presented as the special order for that hour, the Union Pacific funding bill, but as Allison insisted on proceeding on the tariff bill, the funding bill went over, retaining all its rights as a special order.

The tariff debate was then resumed. The cotton tie tax amendment was voted, and rejected by a strict party vote.—Yea 18, nays 20.

Coke moved an amendment reducing the duty on cotton ties to 35 per cent ad valorem, but without action, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—Blanchard, of Louisiana, reported the river and harbor bill. Referred to the committee of the whole.

The Senate amendments to the Department of Agriculture bill was non-concurred in.

O'Neill, of Indiana, submitted a report of the committee on elections in California, in the contested election case of Sullivan against Felton. The report, which finds in favor of Sullivan, together with the view of the minority, confirming Felton's title to the seat, was placed on the calendar.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the direct tax bill.

A LONG DEBATE ENSUED, during which many amendments were offered and rejected.

Elliott, of South Carolina, offered an amendment making it the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to pay such person as shall apply therefor, and furnish satisfactory evidence that the applicant at the time of the sales mentioned was the legal owner, or is heir-at-law or devisee of the legal owner, of such lands as were sold in certain parishes of South Carolina under the acts of said Congress, the valuation of said lands to be in a manner which is set forth in the amendment at length. In all cases where the persons while serving in the purchased any said lands, and such lands afterwards reverted to the United States, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to such persons as shall in each case apply therefor, or to their heirs-at-law, devisees or guaranties, in good faith, and for a valuable consideration of whatever sum was so paid to the United States in such case. In order to carry out the provisions of the amendment $35,000 is appropriated. The amendment was adopted.

ARMY OR NAVY OR MARINE CORPS

Oates, of Alabama, offered an amendment providing for refunding the cotton tax. Rejected.

THE QUESTION THEN CAME UP on the amendment proposed by the judiciary committee, striking out the provision in the Senate bill declaring that no part of the money appropriated by the bill should be paid to any attorney or agent, under any contract, for services now existing or heretofore made between representatives of any State and any attorney or agent. Amendment disagreed to. Several other amendments were offered and rejected. The committee rose and reported the bill to the House. Passed—173 to 96.

The Wish to Go Back.

CHICAGO, December 12.—A meeting of the executive or strikers' committee appointed during the late Burlington strike, took place here to-day. The full committee was present, with Michael Kavenir in the chair. Nothing of importance was transacted, outside of a discussion on the ways and means by which the striking engineers could obtain their old situations again. A committee is expected to be appointed to-morrow to visit "Q" officials. Superintendent Besler said, to-day, that the men would not be re-employed as a body, but as individuals and only as vacancies occurred.

A Ridiculous Charge.

LONDON, December 12.—An Englishman named Jones, recently wrote from America, to Edward Henegue, member of Parliament, making inquiries with reference to an affidavit made by Mr. Benson of Iowa, to the effect that his (Benson's) father, a clergyman in Grimesby, had written him a specific account of the taxing of British workmen to supply funds for President Cleveland's campaign. Mr. Henegue now writes as follows: "There is no clergyman of the name of Benson in Grimesby. The statement is false. I have sympathy with the Englishmen in America who are suffering from the false and ridiculous charge."

The Western Union's Statement.

Knight, of the American Bell Telephone Company of Boston. These instruments were adjudged by the United States Court to infringe on the patents of the Bell Company, and as they could not be utilized, they were destroyed.

The Federation of Labor.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., December 12.—The American Federation of Labor resumed its session this morning. President Gompers appointed a special committee to report on the eight-hour section in his annual address. In it he suggested the formation of the eight-hour law in all the cities and towns, to concentrate the movement, and that on February 22d next meetings on the subject be held all over the country. Recess till afternoon.

On Ressembling, the committee on the president's report, reported the following recommendations: That the American Federation of Labor use their best endeavors to establish the EIGHT HOUR WORK DAY LAW; that measures be introduced into Congress to secure the legislation against the importation of foreign or alien labor, by contract, and the punishment of all violators of such law; that a strike fund be established and be maintained for the benefit of the various unions that may, through sufficient cause, strike; that an assessment of 2 cents per head may be levied, when necessary, to assist in any strike that may be approved by the federation; that the matter regarding child labor in factories be brought to the attention of Congress, and that by an amendment to the constitution of the United States children shall be made instead of the States, and that such measures shall be introduced as will prohibit the employment in factories of children under 14 years of age. The question of the "strike fund" was referred to the committee. As other recommendations were adopted, Secretary McGuire read his report and recommended that six organizers be appointed and maintained by the order, for the purpose of increasing its membership, and that measures be taken toward inducing the organized railroad employees of the country to become affiliated with the Federation of Labor. After the reference of several resolutions to the committee, the convention adjourned till to-morrow.

The Pride of the Family.

NEWARK, N. J., December 12.—It has been settled beyond doubt that Edward F. Honeywood, who was arrested here on Monday night for forgery, is the son of Lady Honeywood, of England. He claims to have been sent to New England to reform and that on his return to England he was kept by his brother, Sir John, until he got his share of the property. $15,000, which he soon squandered, and was then induced to come to America.

Such currents should be allowed to pass for from fifteen to thirty seconds to insure death.

Against His Father-in-Law.
